

Global Connections for Canadian Innovators
Liaisons internationales pour les innovateurs canadiens

Canada(Alberta) Geomatics Match-Making Mission

Bharat Rudra
Country Manager for India and Brazil
ISTPCanada

January 23, 2013

About ISTPCanada

- Develops and implements R&D collaboration programs under S&T cooperation agreements between Canada and its key trading partners: India, Brazil, China, and Israel*
 - Facilitates new R&D partnerships between Canadian companies, research organizations and counterparts in partner countries
 - Technology matchmaking;
 - Partnership Development Activities (PDA)
 - Invests in bilateral R&D projects with commercial potential
 - Positive sum assured by dual due diligence.

Program Funding

- ISTPCanada is funded by Canadian Federal and Provincial governments.
- Federal
 - DFAIT
- Provincial Governments
 - Alberta
 - British Columbia
 - Ontario
- In discussion with other provinces and federal departments

Indian Funding Partners

- Department of Science and Technology
- Department of Biotechnology
- Global Innovation and Technology Alliances (GITA)

ISTPCanada-India Program

Program Activities

ISTPCanada and Indian funding partner provides Canadian and Indian companies applicants funding support for collaborative R&D Projects

Eligible Applicants

- Companies (Canada and India)
- Encourage the participation of academia, research institutes and other institutes

(*Note: Canadian government departments, labs, and crown agencies may participate but cannot be recipient of funding)

Typical Bi-lateral R&D Project

Criteria/Features

- ✓ Project Led by a Company in Canada and Company in India
- ✓ Proposed project must leverage Canadian and Indian strengths
- ✓ Address the priority sectors
- ✓ Participation of academia is encouraged
- ✓ Joint project must address a market need
- ✓ Companies must have resources to complete the project and future commercialization
- ✓ Equivalence of effort
- ✓ Benefits to both countries

